

International Symposium „The latest results on American studies”

We would like to invite you to an international symposium which will be held from 9th – 11th September in Wrocław. The meeting is organized by: The University of Wrocław and Polish Academy of Science Branch in Wrocław, Institute of Archaeology and Ethnology of Polish Academy of Sciences, Centre for Late Antique and Early Medieval Studies in Wrocław. The main issue of the symposium relates to the latest research results in the field of archaeology, ethnology and history of the Americas and their significance for understanding the evolution of pre-Columbian and colonial societies of the region.

The meeting will enable the exchange of experiences between various research institutions, and will offer an excellent opportunity for a discussion on the diverse aspects of American studies. Undoubtedly the meeting also contributes to the establishment of contacts between institutions and integration among researchers from different countries.

The honorable custody of the event was asked:

Ms. Martha Cavarii Dupuy, Ambassador of the Republic of Peru in Poland

His Magnificence Professor Marek Bojarski, Rector of the University of Wrocław.

The venue is the Institute of Archaeology, University of Wrocław, which is one of the oldest and largest Polish academic centers.

The symposium will concern the following broad themes:

1. Archaeological research in the New World
2. Recent results of the ethnological research
3. The history of conquest and the colonial period
